

Woodbine Ecology Center

Promoting Indigenous Values & Sustainable Communities

HONORING MOTHER EARTH EVERYDAY INDIGENOUS MODELS & PRACTICES FOR SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITIES

April 22 – 24, 2011

Join Woodbine Ecology Center during Mother Earth Day weekend for a participatory conference exploring indigenous models for sustainable communities.

GUEST PANELISTS: Winona LaDuke, Gregory Cajete, Louise Benally, David Bartecchi, and other regional and local community leaders.

LEARN — CONNECT — PARTICIPATE — REGENERATE

FOOD SECURITY AND SOVEREIGNTY
LAND STRUGGLES
INDIGENOUS PERMACULTURE

ECOLOGICAL HEALTH AND HEALING
OUR COMMON ENVIRONMENT
COMMUNITY ACTION

Be a part of the conversation.
Engage in action.
Reclaim our future.

For registration, fees, lodging, and co-sponsorship information please go to www.woodbinecenter.org/HME2011

info@woodbinecenter.org | www.woodbinecenter.org | 303.380.7984